

DAILY BIBLE JOURNAL | Monday March 30 – Friday April 3

Monday March 30

1. What are the top three things that you spend time thinking about at the moment?

Read Romans 12:1-2

2. What areas of your life are you being conformed to the pattern of this world?
3. How can you practically take steps to be transformed by the renewal of your mind through reading the Scriptures regularly?

Spend time in prayer asking for God's help with this, and praying for your brothers and sisters in Christ also.

Tuesday March 31

Read Psalm 1

1. How does the Psalmist describe the blessed way and the wicked way of living?
2. What do you think it means to delight in the law of the Lord?
3. When can you find regular time to meditate on God's word?

Pray and give thanks for God's word. Ask that He would reveal himself through His word to people in your life also, particularly in the lead up to Easter and with many people searching for meaning and purpose at this time.

DAILY BIBLE JOURNAL | Monday March 30 – Friday April 3

Wednesday April 1

1. How would you describe your attitude towards reading the Bible normally?

Read Deuteronomy 6:4-9

2. What stands out about the requirements here for Israel?
3. How does this challenge your attitude towards reading the Bible?

Confess your sins before God and give thanks for the forgiveness you have in Christ. Pray and ask for God's help to continue to have your mind renewed through the word.

Thursday April 2

Read Psalm 119:49-56

1. What does God's word offer the Psalmist here? (There's a few!)
2. In what circumstances are they relevant to the Psalmist's life? (Also a few!)
3. Why does the line 'this has been my practice' seem significant to end on?

Stop and pray for those in our world affected by the current coronavirus pandemic. Ask for God's peace, comfort and healing to be made known to many people.

DAILY BIBLE JOURNAL | Monday March 30 – Friday April 3

Friday April 3

Read 2 Timothy 3:14-17

3. Spend time writing down a plan for when, where and how you will read the Bible. Tell someone you trust. Pray and ask for God's help!

1. In what circumstances is Scripture useful?
2. How should this impact our daily rhythms of life?
